About us

Our mission is to provide international students with essential academic and English language skills, cultural experiences and the support they need to thrive in their academic studies, daily life and career development.

Our Values

English Language
Centres

Please see our University Partnerships brochures for information regarding these programmes.

DISCOVER, EXPLORE AND STUDY

DISCOVER

Our dedicated teams are here to serve our students study experience through supportive learning environments, interactive and engaging teaching, regular tutorials, as well as any non-academic assistance they may require.

EXPLORE

London and Manchester are amongst the most desirable cities in the UK. Both cities have their own distinct charm and advantages for language learners, and both centres are centrally located making it effortless to exploring.

STUDY

During the course our students can expect their English skills to be assessed regularly so that they can see their progress and move to a higher level course when they are ready. Our ELT programmes are flexible and adaptable to the aims and progress of our students.
